

INDIDGINUS

"Amazing!" Nihal (BBC Radio 1)

"Indidginus makes hardcore, challenging, dub-heavy electronica, and that's why we showcased him. Proper in-your-face dubstep. I love his vibe."

Bobby Friction (BBC Radio Asian Network)

"Deadly" Sonny Ji (BBC Radio Asian Network)

"I am a big fan." Rod Azlan (Choice FM/Rinse FM)

"This may be one of the best bass and beats albums of the year." Red Bull Studios

"A distinct and unique album that gives credence to the varied and ingenious production abilities of Indidginus." The Untz

"Awesome album. One of my faves of 2011 so far." DJ Umb (Generation Bass)

"Michael Martin is the guy behind one of the most amazing post dancehall and global bass projects around. Indidginus! His album Sofa Surfer caught us by surprise, and everyone is loving it!" Caballo (Tropical Bass/Mad Decent)

Indidginus, purveyor of quality riddims since 1996, specializes in dubstep, dub, dancehall and global bass music. His authentic, expressive and eminently danceable live performances draw on his diverse array of influences. Always a crowd pleaser, his incorporation of slide didgeridoo into his performances in an unusual and inspired take on the tribal instrument forms an integral part of his signature live sound.

His music is receiving critical acclaim and garnering widespread support from Bobby Friction (BBC Radio Asian Network), Nihal (BBC Radio 1), Sonny Ji (BBC Radio Asian Network), Tom Robinson (BBC Radio 6), Adrian Sherwood, DJ Fresh (5FM), Liquid Stranger, ill Gates, DimmSummer (High Chai Recordings), Greg Hunter, Red Bull Studios, Rod Azlan (Choice FM/Rinse FM) and Unity Radio amongst others.
